

I have enjoyed my time when I get home from work by not answering the phone from somebody trying to sell or asking me to donate money. I hope you keep this from happening again The Indiana Telephone Privacy Act has stop telemarketers and now that Members of the Consumer Bankers Association are trying first the mail now the phone please don't let that happen.